HOW THE DAY WAS SPENT.

A BIG ATTENDANCE AT THE FOOTBALL GAME.

The Military Parade and Review Services at the Churches—Band Concert at the Hotel.

Thanksgiving day was more generally observed yesterday than on any previous year, it being the first time it was made a national function. The day was generally observed as a holiday, all the government offices and wholesale stores being closed entirely. Some of the retail stores opened for a little while in the morning, but by 10 o'clock business was pretty generally suspended.

Large numbers of people gathered in Union Square to view the parade of the military, which was a fine one, the full strength of the National Guard being represented and nearly five hundred men being in line. The parade left the drill shed about a quarter of an hour late and was headed by a detachment of police under the command of Captain Parker. This was followed by the band and the regular companies. The artillery attracted the most attention, two gattling guns, two mountain howitzers and two heavy guns being in the procession. Captain Carter's mounted company turned out to its full strength and the mounted police under Captain Cook brought up the rear. The troops marched through the principal streets, afterwards returning to the Executive building where they passed in review before President Dole and other notables.

At 2 o'clock the Star's newsboys and their juvenile friends to the number of sixty were given a dinner by the proprietors of that paper, which was an event which will long be remembered by them. The little fellows marched from the Star office to Love's bakery, where they feasted themselves to their hearts' content on turkey, mince pie and other good things. Messrs. Towse and Hoogs handled the affair as though they had been there themselves and knew just what the little boys wanted. After the dinner they were given a ride and free admission to the football game, where they yelled and tooted horns like good fellows. Many people looked in on the boys while they were at dinner. Miss Kate Field of the Chicago Times and a BULLETIN representative were also present.

The football game was the center of attraction in the afternoon and a very large crowd was present. It was nearly 4 o'clock, however, before the game commenced, but the crowd was a good-natured one and made no exceptions. Captain Singer's Reliabilities won the toss and took the makai position, while Captain Long's Defenders lined up opposite to them. The two teams seemed to be well matched and for a long time there was little advantage gained by either side. Finally Hapai got the ball and made a fine run, scoring a touch down. Soper kicked the ball and made a goal. Score for the first half: Defenders 6; Reliabilities 0.

In the second half Fern and Woods were substituted for the captains of both teams, who were compelled to retire on account of injuries received. Hapai again distinguished himself in this half by another brilliant run in which he carried the ball within eight yards of the boundary, but neither side scored. All the boys did their best but Soper, Clarke, Cummins, Conradt, Johnson and Chris Holt especially distinguished themselves. Cummins was hurt towards the end of the game and Tom Pryce took his place.

When the game was over both teams and their friends adjourned to Steiner's ice cream parlors and recuperated.

In the evening the concert at the Hawaiian hotel drew out a large number of people, who gave evidence of their appreciation of the good music provided by frequent applause, but the boys were too tired to accept encores.

Services were held at all the churches during the morning and they were generally well attended. A big detachment of the Bennington's men were given shore leave during the day and enjoyed themselves as only sailors can.

Three of the soldiers succumbed to the heat during the parade and had to leave the ranks. Including those who were hurt in the football game there were no other casualties during the day.

TURKISH QUESTION.

Turks Said to be Better Disposed Now.

There is still turbulence in Asia Minor. Turkish troops are concentrating to move upon Zeitoun, where the Armenians are strongly posted.

The U. S. S. Minneapolis has been ordered to join the Marblehead and San Francisco in Turkish waters. It is said the British Government would be glad to see the American ships make a demonstration.

Queen Victoria has sent an autograph letter to the Sultan, saying that she had been deeply distressed by reason of the reports of the Armenian massacres in the Turkish empire.

Russian frontier guards near Kars have killed or captured many Kurds, who have been engaged in pursuing Armenians trying to escape.

A letter received in Boston from a reliable correspondent in Constantinople contains the following on the situation there: "The Turks are more sensible than before, as they realize that the action of the Armenians is not against themselves but against a system of government which all detest. There is a remarkable change from the feeling of three weeks ago, when any Turk seemed to long to kill any Armenian."

"At the same time the palace party is diligently circulating stories of Armenian outrages to keep up the feeling of anger against them. The Turkish patriotic party is openly declaring that the Sultan is the cause of all the troubles that afflict the country. The Minister of Marine has been threatened by the Moslem patriotic committee and is carefully guarded by the troops in his palace."

Amateur Baseball League.

An amateur baseball league has been formed to play a series of thirteen games, the first of which will come off on December 7, a week from tomorrow. The league is composed of three clubs—the Harts, Welcomes and Mailes. G. Lewis is captain of the first-named and Alex. Pahan of the Mailes. Games will take place at the League grounds and the usual admission be charged.

EUROPE.

The Duke of Marlborough's lawyer contradicts the marriage settlement. The Duke declined to take a shilling of his bride's money, and the whole of it was settled upon her in the ordinary way. It is not true that there is a heavy mortgage on the Blenheim estates.

Prince Bismarck lately received Congressman Bartholdi of St. Louis. He asked him many questions about America, how the Germans did there, whether the Jews, who have left the Old World and settled America, were persecuted to any extent, etc.

Jabez Spencer Baifour, who was extradited with much difficulty from Argentina, and three associates in the Liberator companies swindles have been convicted in London. Sentence was postponed.

There is a great disturbance in the London and Paris stock markets, caused by liquidation sales, political apprehensions and a heavy fall in the prices of foreign securities and mining shares.

OTHER LANDS.

Reported Atrocities by the Ameer of Afghanistan.

It is reported that the Ameer of Afghanistan is greatly annoyed at the failure of his second son, upon his recent visit to England, to arrange for a permanent representative in London. In consequence of the Ameer's rage many persons have been buried alive, and a great number imprisoned, while many have fled. A notable who accompanied the prince will be tortured on his return home, and it is believed the prince himself will be punished. The son took loads of costly presents for the royalties of Europe, and his few weeks' visit to London cost the British Government $33,000 for entertainments and traveling expenses, exclusive of the large bills brought in by the proprietors of hotels where the prince stopped, because of the peculiar methods of the ninety natives of his suite. Some of them even killed and prepared the animals for their master's food, in the Afghanistan mode, at the rooms in the hotels.

THE CUBAN WAR.

Rebels Win a Great Battle—Spaniards Evacuate Santiago.

After seventeen hours' fighting, the insurgents defeated the Spaniards, killing and wounding five hundred, but with small loss to the Cubans. A Spanish General who was wounded had a narrow escape from capture.

Santiago is to be evacuated by the Spaniards.

There is a report of another battle, in which 450 rebels were defeated by 150 Spaniards, through the negligence of the Cuban commander.

Winston Churchill, eldest son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill, is with the Spanish troops studying their operations.

The insurgent leaders, it is reported, are convinced that they cannot succeed if the planters are allowed to grind sugar. They have proclaimed that they will respect plantation property if the planters will hire no able-bodied men and grind no sugar. The planters favor the Spanish cause.

Spain and France, as well as Great Britain, are going to push claims against Venezuela. A Spanish cruiser has left Havana in a hurry for that country.

Horrible Report.

It is reported by the Chinese papers that the Queen of Corea was hung up by the hair and, after being otherwise abused, soaked in oil and then burned alive in the rear of the palace, her body being reduced to ashes. Thirty retainers were butchered and their bodies left lying about the palace.

UNITED STATES.

Mining Stock Boom Wanted.

A special committee has been appointed in the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange to see what can be done to bring the boom in mining stocks to that city. Members have for months looked with envious eyes toward London, where the great Kafir craze had made a few millionaires and ruined nearly everybody else. There has also been a spurt in the West. Representative men at the meeting urged upon the committee the absolute necessity for a thorough weeding out of all wildcat mining securities.

Lads Derailed a Train Causing Loss of Life.

Four lads wrecked a New York Central train near Rome, and the engineer and a tramp were killed, while the fireman, mail clerk and another tramp were seriously injured. The train was derailed on a down grade when, it is thought, it was making close to seventy-five miles an hour. Three of the lads were arrested and have made a full confession. They have been put on trial for murder in the first degree, but owing to their youth it is expected they will only be convicted of murder in the second degree.

Holman of Indiana Talks About the Democratic Defeat.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Judge Holman, of Indiana, who was known in congress as "The Watch-dog of the Treasury," is in Washington and will probably remain here all winter, on account of Mrs. Holman's feeble health.

In speaking of the recent defeat of his party, Judge Holman said:

"The trouble is with the administration, and not so much with legislation. There has been nothing in legislation since the 51st congress to excite public dissatisfaction or cause distress. The misfortunes of the democratic began with the mistake in the Hawaiian matter. The deposed queen had no possible claim on the United States for respect or consideration. Mr. Harrison made a mistake in sending his treaty to the senate and providing for the annexation of the Hawaiian islands. The proposition to pay the queen a pension and her niece a lump sum of money, in other words, to buy from her the islands, as if she had a proprietary right in them, was utterly absurd and inconsistent, and Mr. Cleveland was entirely right in withdrawing that treaty."

"Nevertheless, the mistake of Mr. Harrison was lost sight of, being overshadowed by the greater mistakes of Mr. Cleveland's administration. The attempt to restore the queen was an error, and unpopular, and it was an affront to the sensibilities of the American people to have the stars and stripes pulled down by the agent of the administration. I don't think we should have annexed the islands, but a different course should have been followed from that adopted."
